HOME FOOTBALL RESULTS

Arsenal's Advance Stopped

CHARLTON FORGES AHEAD

The Arsenal went down at Birmingham, and Manchester City, Sunderland, Stoke and Everton won their matches in the First Division. In the Second Division were held to a draw and West Ham and Brentford won. Reading in the Southern Section of the Third Division displaced Watford by beating them while Charlton are still at the head of the tables. In the Northern Division Tranmere came away with both points from Halifax to remain in the lead with Chester and Doncaster following close.

The results as cabled by Reuters, together with the tables to date are as follows:—

ENGLAND WINS

Rugby Match From Ireland

London, Feb. 9. A crowd of 50,000 saw the England fifteen beat their Irish visitors by 14 points to 3 in the Rugby International Championship at Twickenham to-day in sunny though chilly weather.

This represented England's fourth consecutive success over Ireland and her first triumph in this season's series.

The game opened sensationally, Giles going over in the fifth minute for Boughton to add the goal points.

Splendid kicking to touch by both teams featured the play, but the English forwards were performing disappointingly, heeling very sluggishly midway through the first half. The Irish pack, in contrast, launched many fierce rushes, being particularly impressive in the loose.

Ireland scored their only try through O'Connor in the first minute of the second half, the effort being unconverted.

Following this the Irishmen were continually being penalised for offside, Boughton landing three penalty goals to give England a convincing victory by 14 points to 3.

For Marketing Eggs

London, Feb. 8.

In the report of the Reorganisation Commission for eggs and poultry issued yesterday by the Ministry of Agriculture it is proposed that England and Wales should be divided into some 200 areas, each with a packing station, and that an Egg and Poultry Board should be set up to fix prices from time to time.

The Commission points out that egg production has nearly doubled in the last 10 years, but little attempt has been made to modernise marketing methods, in order to dispose satisfactorily of the increased output.

Under the scheme now proposed, each of the 200 stations will have an average radius of 10 miles and would collect the best grade pack and sell to the distributive trades the eggs of all registered producers in the area other than those specially exempted.

The Commission estimates that there are 80,000 poultry dealers in England and Wales and believe that, since the essential needs of the two sides of the industry are the same, their aim should be to set up for poultry marketing an organisation on similar lines to that proposed for eggs. Immediately, however, the Board should prepare the ground for development by experiment in various directions.

NO DIAMOND MATERIAL

Man-Made Stone Worthless

London, Feb. 8.

Alarm over the discovery of a process for the manufacture of synthetic diamonds has been dissipated by the report which the laboratory experts of the Diamond, Pearl and Precious Stones Trade Section of the London Chamber of Commerce issued to-night.

The Chamber in a formal statement says that tests show that the so-called synthetic diamonds are not composed of diamond material, as they have a refractive index of 1.725 and a specific gravity of 3.61, whereas a true diamond has a refractive index of 2.4175 and a specific gravity of 3.52.

Further, under the microscope other observations were made which makes it possible for the Chamber to state definitely that the so-called synthetic diamonds are undoubtedly white synthetic spinels.

The experts of the Chamber laboratory unhesitatingly state that these imitation stones have little commercial value and cannot even be used for industrial purposes. No dealer or expert could possibly be deceived by them, they add.

SUNSPOT OBSERVED

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright))

Berlin, Feb. 8.

During the glorious cloudless spring weather here on Thursday, a sunspot of enormous dimensions was observed. The measurements made by several German observatories independently estimated its diameter to be between 80,000 or 70,000 kilometres.

LIFE SENTENCE PASSED

For High Treason

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Belgrade, Feb. 8.

A political sensation was caused here on Friday by the news that the Croats intend abandoning their tactics of reserve and re-entering the field of active politics. Dr. Matishek, who, shortly after the formation of the Yefitch cabinet, was released from prison where he had served two of the three years to which he was sentenced for political offences, has accepted the invitation extended by Yvanovitch, leader of the Serbian farmers to stand as joint candidate for the Croatian and Serbian farmers parties.

This union is primarily due to the effect of the present electoral law which prohibits parties existing on one part of the kingdom only from putting up candidates for parliament. This restriction is overcome by the fusion of the Croatian and Serbian farmers organisations into one party, and it is furthermore believed that a very close understanding has been reached on the questions of policy. In view of the elections taking place in May this development is of considerable significance as, in addition to the oppositional peoples party, the Government have to contend with the united peasants party.—Transocean Kuo Min.

SOUTH AFRICAN
BASESNo Defence Scheme
Made

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Capetown, Feb. 8.

The Prime Minister of South Africa, General Hertzog declared on Friday in Parliament that the statement recently made by the Defence Minister, Pirow, to the effect that South Africa was not prepared to participate in any general plan for the defence of the British Empire represented the views of the policy of the Government.

General Hertzog added that no agreement of any kind had been made between the South African Government and the British Admiralty about the defence of the South African naval bases. In case of war the decision as to whether the South African Union would remain neutral or not would rest solely with the South African Parliament.—Transocean Kuo Min.

NO BABY SHOW

At The World Fair

Chicago, Feb. 8.

As a sequel to the refusal of the Canadian Government to allow the famous "Dionne quintuplets" to appear at the World's Fair, Chicago, owing to the risk of "certain death" a U.S.$1,000,000 suit for breach of contract was filed to-day by Ivan Spear, head of the "Century of Progress" section of the Exhibition.

The defendants in the action, which will be heard in the United States District Court, are Mr. and Mrs. Dionne, the parents of the quintuplets, and Dr. Dafoe, who has treated them throughout, has been appointed their guardian by Canadian Government officials.

Several Chicago newspapers have objected to the proposal to exhibit the infants.—Reuter.

LESSON SERMON

First Church Of Christ, Scientist

"Spirit" was the subject of the Lesson Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday February 10th, 1935.

The Golden Text was "Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. (II Corinthians 3: 17).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson Sermon was the following from the Bible: "There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the Sons of God. The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, what we are the children of God." (Romans 8: 1, 14, 16).

The Lesson Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "In Christian Science, Spirit, as a proper noun, is the name of the Supreme being. It means quantity and quality, and applies exclusively to God. Man understands spiritual existence in proportion as his treasures of Truth and Love are enlarged. Mortals must gravitate Godward, their affections and aims grow spiritual—they must near the broader interpretations of being, and gain some proper sense of the infinite—in order that sin and mortality may be put off." (p. 93: p. 265).

"Mummy, the pants you made me are tighter than my skin," said the little one.

"Nonsense, my boy. Don't say silly things like that."

"But they are. I can bend in my skin and I can't in my pants," he replied.

OBITUARY

Max Liebermann

Berlin, Feb. 8.

The famous painter, Professor Max Liebermann, died in his studio among his masterpieces to-day.

The painter was 87 years of age and had received the Eagle Plaque, Germany's highest civil decoration, from the hands of the late Field Marshal von Hindenburg.

He was deprived of the professorship he had held for years in the Prussian Academy of Art upon the advent of the Nazi regime.—Reuter.

Foreigners visiting the Leipzig Merchandise Fair which opens on March 3, 1935 will be permitted to utilise their "blocked" credit balances in Germany for part payment of orders placed.

Foreign exhibitors at the Leipzig Spring Fair may defray their expenses from such blocked accounts if the balances are in the exhibitor's name.—Transocean Kuo Min.

A NEW WAR

Government And Bankers

Paris, Feb. 8.

The opening of the lists of the new French Treasury bonds was heralded by a fierce attack on Renten which fell sharply on the Bourse to-day.

The market believes that this attack is the first engagement in a war between the Government and big banking interests. It is freely predicted that the Flandin Cabinet will fall unless the Premier drastically curbs bank actions against the Government.

The crucial test for the Government will come between now and Thursday.

Some quarters believe the large banks are trying to force the currency issue, and by opposing the cheap money policy of the Government to compel the Ministry to devalue French currency.

Others believe the Bank of France may be coerced into lowering the discount rate to two per cent. on February 14.—Reuter.

Why Not?

The suburbanite had lost his last train home. Outside the station, however, he observed an acquaintance in a slightly part-worn condition, so he approached him and said, "Would you mind giving me a lift?"

"That's all right, ole boy. Step in."

The other tactfully offered to drive, and in half an hour they were home.

"Now," said the driver, looking at his acquaintance's home, "where's your garage?"

"Don't have garage, ole boy."

"Then where do you keep your car?"

"Don't have a car, ole boy."

"But when I saw you outside the station in town, you were leaning against this car."

"I know, ole boy—but when you feel as I do, you've got to lean against something."

Should Women dread
the approach of a perfectly natural event?

NATURE never intended you to suffer unduly. Why is it then that so many thousands of women experience such pain and weakness.

Simply because there is a shortage of vital minerals in the body.

That is the reply, supported by the best medical opinion. Calcium is the vital food of every body cell, and any shortage hinders the correct performance of all bodily functions, particularly those of women.

The use of Kalzana, the mineral food, for a few weeks provides the whole system with the indispensable minerals needed to establish that care-free, vigorous health that Nature intended you to enjoy.

But it must be Kalzana, as only in this scientific form (a combination of sodium-lactate and calcium-lactate) will the mineral salts be taken up and retained by your body.

Lose your dread—re-establish the functions on a normal basis by starting a course of Kalzana to-day.

a convent because the count had asked her to do that until we were married."

"And now what?"
"She is ill, desperately ill, and sent for me. She is so ill that I saw that it would be safe to send for you and explain."

"Will she recover, Della?"
"The doctors say that she will after many months."

"And what about the count, meanwhile?"

"He has been here twice. Now he is in Rome on some affairs. He has, mother said, advanced sufficient sums of money so that I am now duty bound to marry him."

"But when your mother recovers, Della?"

"When she recovers I shall marry you at once, for I have learned that she deceived me. We are not impoverished at all, but have plenty. Yet I cannot endanger her by running away with you now. Have no fears, Venuto and believe nothing that any one save myself says. I shall forever be true and shall marry no other than your own dear self. I am so—Oh, look!"

The girl indicated a window where a white scarf was hanging out.

"That is the signal. Suzzi was to hang out the white scarf if mother awakened and asked for me. I must run. Come tomorrow night—I must not keep her waiting, she is too ill for that risk."

After a speedy embrace Della ran into the house and Benvenuto, feeling happier than for a long time, departed for his home.

His Own Shop

He was doubly happy, first in the assurance that the beautiful Della still loved him and would ever remain faithful, and again because when he packed up and left Andrucci's shop he had resolved to open a shop all his own.

It chanced that, shortly after Benvenuto had opened his own establishment—a wealthy man of Florence who had had a jewel casket made at Andrucci's shop for his wife, came again with a commission for a gold service. Andrucci promised designs to be promptly made and became exceedingly happy at the thought of such a profitable commission.

His two workmen and a third he had engaged to take the place of Benvenuto, were ordered to do their best in producing original designs, but their best did not please this wealthy man.

"Where is the young artist, Cellini, who designed and made the jewel casket for me?" he inquired.

"I had to send him away the beast," Andrucci replied, with a shrug, inwardly furious.

The client straightaway went to the home of Giovanni Cellini to make inquiries. Thus he learned that Benvenuto had his own shop.

Andrucci let his relatives know of his distress and his anger and two of his cousins agreed, for a certain sum, to get plenty of revenge for him.

The two relatives, Guasco, a powerful man, and Filippo, his brother, lay in wait for Benvenuto. As he was passing a narrow street, they tipped a cart of bricks on him so that he was stunned and fell unconscious. Thinking him dead they fled, but first to his shop. Benvenuto soon recovered and a lad told him who the men were, cousins of Andrucci.

Benvenuto had chanced to be unarmed and he hurried to his shop for his sword and small dagger, getting there in time to find the men ransacking his shop.

In a great fury Benvenuto attacked them with a golden-hilted dagger from his workshop. Filippo leaped back and fell, striking his head against a corner of the forge. Guasco turned on Benvenuto with his sword but Benvenuto leaped below the wild lung, plunging the dagger in the man's neck.

"Seeing that the man was dead, Benvenuto knew that his life would depend upon escaping. He ran in the direction of Santa Maria Novella and came upon Fra Alessio Strozzi.

"For the love of God," Benvenuto cried, "save my life, for I have committed a great fault."

Benvenuto is in dire trouble, indeed. Will the good friar try to help him? Don't miss to-morrow's instalment.

YOU SAID A MOUTHFUL

At The Oriental

Joe E. Brown is the famous comedy star in "You Said A Mouthful" showing at the Oriental Theatre on Monday and Tuesday. And what a mouthful! He's a marathon swimmer who can't swim! Mistaken for a swimming champion, Joe is forced into a marathon race. In deadly fear of the water, and never having tried to swim before except to practice the strokes on dry land, he musters up courage to start when he is presented with what he believes to be a non-sinkable bathing suit. After a series of hilarious incidents he is nearly drowned.

Joe is supported by an exceptionally strong cast, with the beautiful Titian-haired screen and musical comedy star, Ginger Rogers. Others include Farins, of "Our Gang" comedies, Preston S. Foster, Sheila Terry, Guinn Williams, Harry Gribbon, Oscar Apfel, Edwin Maxwell, Walter Walker, William Burress and Frank Hagney.

This comedy, is said to contain a riot of fun, and more hilarious gags than half a dozen ordinary comedies.

NOW AND FOR EVER

At The Alhambra

Gary Cooper, Carole Lombard and Shirley Temple have each a following of thousands of cinema fans and whenever they appear in any picture, that film is certain to be what is termed a "box office success." The Alhambra Theatre have now stolen a march on the other picture houses for "Now and Forever," their current attraction. It is unique in that all these three stars are members of the cast which makes the picture the success it is.

In the opening scene, we see Cooper in Shanghai but the story is a quick-moving one and soon we see him back in his home where he meets his daughter (played by Shirley Temple) for the first time and changes his mind about selling the child to his brother. Carole Lombard plays the part of the girl with whom Cooper falls in love and together the three of them make "Now and Forever" one of the most acceptable films we have seen for many a long day.

THE GAY BRIDE

Hilarious Comedy
At The Queen's

The Gay Bride which is now showing at the Queen's is based on the story "Repeal" written by Charles Francis Cox.

There is plenty of comedy from start to finish with one hilarious situation added on to another which moves about with the speed of a "sky rocket."

Carole Lombard is co-starred with Chester Morris, and other supporting players in the cast include Nat Pendleton, Leo Carrillo, Zasu Pitts and Sam Hardy.

The situations at times though hilarious have their serious moments. This picture is certainly worth the price of admission.

VARIANT ON CASTOR OIL

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Jan. 18.

Correspondent in the Saar tells of an amusing incident which occurred when a Saarlander in a cafe jeered at some Italian officers, calling them "Macaronis." They stood it for some time, but at last they got annoyed and carried him off to their barracks.

The offender was very much afraid they were going to imprison him. But instead they took him into their mess, ordered five plates of macaroni, and told him he would be allowed to go home when he had eaten them all.

He got through the first two plates without difficulty. At the third he made a formal apology for having called them "Macaronis."

Before tackling the fourth, he said that, after all, it was a compliment, as macaroni was the best dish he had ever tasted.

So they forgave him, the two last platefuls and let him go home.

The Count Of Monte
Cristo

Every struggling actor who surrounds his profession with a Cinderella aura and sustains faith in the future with the dream that just around the corner waits the glass slipper of a magnificent role that will fit him alone, will take heart from the fact that it has actually happened—again!

This time the magic wand has been waved over a young Englishman who, a few months ago, was wondering what he was going to do next, but to-day is playing the starring role in one of the year's biggest pictures—Edward Small's million dollar Reliance production, "The Count of Monte Cristo," released through United Artists and is now showing at the King's.

American motion picture audiences will remember Robert Donat, Hollywood's final choice for the romantic Edmond Dantes in the Alexandre Dumas classic, as the "dashing" Thomas Culpeper, Charles Laughton's love rival, in "The Private Life of Henry VIII."

Called Back To London
Donat had just completed a seven months' run on the London stage in a play called "The Sleeping Clergyman," and gone to Cornwall for a vacation. No sooner was his luggage unpacked than he was called back to London by Alexander Korda, under whose direction he had played in "Henry VIII."

"How would you like to go to Hollywood to make a picture?" asked Korda. "I have been authorized to make you an offer."

"I should like to go very much. What is the picture?"

"The Count of Monte Cristo," explained Korda.

"Oh," said Donat, disappointedly, "What part?"

VOLTAIRE

The Alhambra's Next Change

Four thousand seven hundred and eighty-two candles of various sizes, shapes and colours were burned during the filming of the Warner Bros. picture, "Voltaire," starring George Arliss and coming to the Alhambra Theatre on Wednesday. Yet the light they gave was scarcely a millionth part of that actually used in photographing the picture.

Voltaire was a noted night owl and the French court of Louis XV and Madame Pompadour, which he frequented, observed no regular hours, so that much of the story of "Voltaire" is of necessity told against a night background.

Candles were the principal means of light at the time, even in the royal palaces, and great chandeliers containing hundreds of burning candles, are consequently featured in many sequences of the picture.

Just one of the many studio lights used to light the sets of "Voltaire" gives off many times the actual amount of light furnished by the 4,782 candles, so they were of no actual help in photographing the scenes, save that of atmosphere.

"Voltaire" is an intensely dramatic presentation of the turbulent life of the great French wit and agitator, who was only saved from Louis' wrath by the intervention of Mme. Pompadour, who admired Voltaire for his wit.

Among those who support Mr. Arliss are Doris Kenyon, Margaret Lindsay, Theodore, Newton, Reginald Owen and Alan Mowbray. The late John Adolf directed.

"Monte Cristo," replied Korda. Donat took it with proverbial British composure, but he admits he's still figuratively pinching himself to make sure it's not all a dream.

ONE NIGHT OF LOVENext Attraction At The Queen's

"One Night of Love," Columbia's highly-touted musical romantic drama which is Thursday's attraction at the Queen's Theatre has Grace Moore, America's "singing sweetheart," in the starring role. Miss Moore, whose glorious voice has been heard from the stages of La Scala Opera House in Vienna, the Opera Comique in Paris and the Metropolitan in New York, has seldom been heeded to such praise as that which greeted her performance in this outstanding musical production.

Tullio Carminati, well-known stage and screen star, has the leading male role opposite the star with Lyle Talbot, Mona Barrie, Luis Alberni, Jessie Ralph and Andrea de Segur in support. Adapted to the screen by S. K. Lauren, James Gow and Edmund North from the original story written by Dorothy Speare and Charles Beahan, "One Night of Love" is a picture that will thrill you. Grace Moore's exquisite voice and her own beauty and charming personality are allowed full reign which makes this picture all the more enchanting and proves that Miss Moore is one of the most radiant personalities on the screen. Her glorious voice will completely win any audience and with Tullio Carminati, suave and romantic as her leading man, this Columbia production, directed by Victor Schertzinger, is very entertaining.

Don't Deny It Now

"I had the right of way when this man ran into me, yet you say I was to blame."

LEADER, POLICY, BUT NO PARTY

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Jan. 18.

The Scottish Liberals' invitation to Mr. Lloyd George to lead the Liberal Party comes at the moment when he is doing his best to dissociate himself from party.

His role next week at Bangor will be that of a leader with a policy but no party. It may be taken that he will decline the invitation with thanks, as he did a similar overture from North Wales Liberals in February.

And for the same reason, that it might embarrass him.

He will, nevertheless, welcome the support of the Scottish Liberals for his 'New Deal'. His plan is to make it popular in all parties.

TRAINING GALLOPS

Fast Mile By Mistake Bay And Derby Day

BY "MORNING DEW"

Mistake Bay, the Dunbar Derby candidate was responsible for a very impressive gallop at the course on Saturday, going over a mile in 2.13.4 and finishing full of running. Herod put in a strong finish at the end of a mile and a half. The last quarter was in 29.3 seconds.

In the Australian class, Southern Cross put up a nice finish at the end of a mile gallop. Midnight Star and Shooting Star both went well, while Derby Day capped the lot by returning 1.54 for a mile, one of the best performances seen on the local sand track for a long time.

KOWLOON FIRE

A fire broke out on Friday night at about 11.30 p.m. at the Nam Cheung Sugar Factory in Thistle Street, near the Mong Kok Tsim Ferry wharf and resulted in heavy damages to the building and machinery.

The fire spread with rapidity and could be seen for miles around. For the first time since its installation the Shamshupo appliance was seen at work and together with two other appliances from Mongkok and Tsimshatsui the fire was quickly subdued.

The fear of the flames spreading to other buildings necessitated a fireboat to stand by.

CRAIGENGOWER WHIST DRIVE

Mrs. Newham led Mrs. Eyns to win the ladies' prize at the fortnightly whist drive held at the Craigenower Cricket Club last night. Mr. Stephens won the gentlemen's prize, while Mr. Rhodes came second.

Li Hing, a pawnshop accountant, was complimented by Mr. E. W. Hamilton at Kowloon Magistracy yesterday for effecting the arrest of an unemployed Chinese, named Li Cheung, who had attempted to pawn a fox fur at his shop. Remembering a police warning to be on the lookout for such a fur, Li Hing communicated with the authorities and caused Li Cheung to be arrested. Sentence of fourteen days' hard labour was passed on the latter.

SMALLPOX EPIDEMIC IN BOMBAY

The local agent of the Lloyd Triestino advise that he has been informed by his Bombay Office that the port of Bombay has been declared infected by an epidemic of small-pox and that therefore all passengers are advised by the Port Health Authorities to be vaccinated and to be in possession of a vaccination certificate. Passenger ships will be quarantined and no visitors will be allowed on board. Passengers wishing to visit the town can do so but must prove by certificate that they have been vaccinated within the last three years. There are no restrictions for passengers disembarking at Bombay.

For alleged possession of 590 counterfeit Chinese 20-cent pieces, Pun Po Yan, alias Pun Yuk, and Liu Tak Ching were remanded in police custody for 48 hours by Mr. W. M. Thompson at the Central Magistracy Saturday morning.

Mr. M. K. Lo appeared on behalf of the first defendant, and stated that he wished to know the reasons for his client being remanded in police custody. Detective-Sergeant Clarke stated that he could not disclose the reasons. Bail of $3,500 was allowed.

ST. ANDREW'S
V. D. M. A.Big Increase In Donations

The annual general meeting of the St. Andrew's Branch of the Victoria Diocesan Missionary Association was held at the hall of St. Andrew's Church yesterday under the chairmanship of the Rev. J. R. Higgs.

There was a comparatively small number of members present, and the Hon. Secretary, Miss Armstrong, in her report said that the membership of the year had increased from 54 to 59—there were 16 new members and 11 resignations. Donations increased considerably during the year which showed that the members had "done their best." Monthly prayer meetings, which had lapsed for several years were recommenced during the past year and these were held every second Friday of the month, the average attendance being eight. During the year two socials were held: one in March when His Lordship the Bishop of Hong Kong very kindly spoke about the work of the Association, and the other in December when the Rev. A. J. Bennett was the speaker. Whilst drives were also organised but were very poorly attended. Six children were given missionary boxes and they made a total collection of $10. Two jumble sales were held and these realised $208 while an organ recital was very kindly given by Mr. Rupert Baldwin.

After deducting the expenses and the Association's quota to the V.D.M.A., London, the Branch now has $5.42 in hand.

Miss Armstrong was re-elected Hon. Secretary and Hon. Treasurer for the coming year, and the following were elected to serve on the committee: Mrs. C. W. Bishop, Mrs. Jeffries, Miss M. Nash, Mrs. L. L. Nash, Dr. H. D. Matthews, Dr. K. H. Utley and Mrs. V. Petherick.

FLAG DAY

M.C.L.'s Success

The Hong Kong Ministering League and Ministering Children's League held a very successful flag day on Saturday when numerous willing and fair helpers were seen all over the Colony soliciting in their sales of flags for a very deserving cause.

At the close of the sales we were informed that the net proceeds of the sales realised over $1,500.

The grateful thanks of the Committee are due to the following helpers:

Miss Alabaster, Mrs. Barber, Mrs. Begg, Mrs. Burnie, Miss Buchanan, Miss P. Buchanan, Miss Brearly, Miss Beaver, Miss Carvalho, Miss Crane, Mrs. Craig, Miss Chan Chee Ming, Miss Chan Wei Hing, Miss Didsbury, Miss Dowbiggin, Miss Evans, Mrs. Orr Ewing, Miss Forsyth, Mrs. Feltham, Miss Gibbon, Miss Holland, Miss Hartill, Miss Hayden, Miss B. Hance, Miss H. Hance, Miss Hunt, Miss D. Kotewall, Miss H. Kotewall, Miss Latham, Miss Lakeman, Mrs. Lovat, Mrs. Tang, Miss Lee Suk Ying, Miss Lau Tak Chun, Mrs. Manners, Miss Moir, Mrs. Martin, Miss Moncton, Mrs. Macgregor, Mrs. Mead, Miss Ng Tung King, Miss Priestley, Miss Purves, Miss da Roza, Miss Reiton, Miss Ralston, Mrs. Russell, Miss Stanton, Mrs. Skyrme, Mrs. Sanger, Miss Sanger, Miss Stimson, Miss Strahan, Miss V. Stinson, Miss da Silva, Miss Smith, Miss Taylor, Miss Turnbull, Miss Wong Yen Ho, Miss Wolfe, Miss E. Wittchell, Miss M. Wittchell, and Miss Welch.

Thanks are also due to the Mrs. Maunders for the loan of the tins from the Poppy Day Organisation, Mr. Morris for the loan of the trays from the St. John Ambulance Brigade, and the Press.

AUTHORS' ESTATES

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Jan. 18.

The £23,000 left by Sir Arthur Pinero must be classed among the "big" estates of literary men. Playwrights, novelists, poets and authors generally do not greatly benefit the Exchequer through death duties.

Mr. Lytton Strachey, for instance, left only £3,000; Mr. Robert Bridges, the poet laureate, £3,000; Mr. D. H. Lawrence, Bloomsbury's pet lion, about £2,500.

Sir Hall Caine's estate was in the neighbourhood of a quarter of

FROM THE GAZETTENotifications And Appointments

The following notifications, and appointments are taken from the Government Gazette:—

Dr. W. B. A. Moore, is to be a member of the Legislative Council during the absence from the Colony of the Hon. Dr. A. R. Wellington.

Professor L. R. Forster is to be an additional member of the Council of the University of Hong Kong for a period of one year from February 1, 1935.

Mr. G. Polgaise is appointed Third Assistant Assessor of Rates.

Mr. Leo D'Almada e Castro, Jr., is to be a member of the Board of Education for a further period of two years, from February 12, 1935.

The next Criminal Sessions of the Supreme Court will be held on February 21.

At the expiration of three months unless cause is shown to the contrary, the names of the Ning Yung Land Investment Company, Limited and the Tropical Trading Company, Limited, will be struck off the register.

It is notified that the names of the Canton Traders, Limited, the Hop Yick Company Limited and Lyon and Company, Limited, have been struck off the Register.

WEDDING BELLS

Hopton-Smith

Miss Emma Hopton, the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hopton, of Melbourne, Australia, became the bride of Mr. Herbert Cyril Smith, an engineer in the Indo China Steam Navigation Company, who is the second son of Captain and Mrs. R. D. Smith of Hong Kong in a quiet wedding solemnised at the Cathedral on Saturday when the Rev. C. Brown officiated.

The bride, who was given away by Mr. Thomas Hynes, of the General Post Office, looked charming in an ensemble of pink georgette with waterfall cascade which formed a short train and which was trimmed with pearls, and carrying a sheaf of pink gladioli. Mrs. G. Boyce was the matron of honour.

The duties of best man were performed by Mr. James Reid, the second officer of the s.s. Hin Sang, also of the Indo-China Steam Navigation Company.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the private residence of Mr. T. Hynes.

Later the happy couple left for Repulse Bay where they are spending their honeymoon.

THE CHURCH AND MARRIAGE

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Jan. 18.

The Rev. C. E. Douglas's motion in the Church Assembly in favour of a purely secular marriage law for those who are not members of the Church is likely to have a good deal of support.

He is a prominent member of the Assembly, which he not infrequently irritates by his extremely logical views.

"He annoys me horribly," said one dignitary last session, "but the mischief of it is he is nearly always right."

Some of the most complex problems which the Church and State Commission has been examining for six years are those concerning marriage. The law of marriage is essentially Church law, whereas the divorce law is a creation of the State.

There is less likelihood than ever that the Church will give way to the State on the matter of divorce. Hence the significance of Mr. Douglas's proposal.

a million, but such literary fortunes are rare.

Sir W. B. Gilbert was one of the wealthiest writers with £111,000. Stanley Weyman coming next with £100,000. Dickens left £93,000. Thomas Hardy £91,000, and John Galsworthy £88,000.

On the other hand, such popular favourites as Arnold Bennett, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, and W. J. Locke left the comparatively small sums of £40,000, £30,000, and £24,000.

MINISTERS IN AFGHANISTANAmerica To Send Representative

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Jan. 18.

America's decision to send a Minister to Afghanistan is symptomatic of that country's increasing interest in the Middle East. This has already been shown by the recent activity of American oil interests in the Persian Gulf.

Until 1919 Great Britain, in the person of an Envoy or Resident, was the only Power officially represented at Kabul. On the conclusion of the treaty with King Amanullah the British Envoy ceased to have the duties of a Resident, and became a Minister.

Italy, Switzerland, Russia, France, and Persia thereupon quickly established Legations.

The new American Minister need not necessarily have a command of Persian, the language of Afghan diplomacy, as interpreters are plentiful.

Protracted Diplomacy

Before the war, however, this was by no means the case. When Sir Louis Dane, then Foreign Secretary to the Indian Government, negotiated the treaty with the Amir Habibullah Khan in 1905, the negotiations were carried on in Persian.

Sir Louis was a great Persian scholar, as was the Amir, and the bargaining over the treaty was liberally laced with apposite quotations from Hafiz and other classic poets.

Oriental diplomacy of the old school was a leisurely business. Sir Louis Dane met the Amir or his representatives three times a week for six months. The average length of the sittings, conducted with the temperature 80 degrees below zero, was between five and six hours each.

The treaty, however, when it was eventually signed kept Afghanistan quiet during the war.

BIG DEFICIT REPORTED

Nanking, Feb. 9.

Chinese press reports state that in view of the fact that the actual expenditures of the Chinese Government for the last fiscal year exceeded the estimates by over $140,000,000, a special effort will henceforth be made by the various Government organisations to keep within the Budget.

CHOPIN RECITAL
A Treat For Music
Lovers

Mr. A. M. Bowes-Smith is giving a Chopin Recital on Wednesday at the Helena May Institute in aid of the Hong Kong Benevolent Society. Mr. Bowes-Smith is too well-known as one of the finest musicians to Hong Kong to require an introduction and music lovers are promised a really fine treat, which alone should ensure a large audience.

Mr. Bowes-Smith has chosen a well-balanced programme which is as follows:—

- 1—Fantasia in F Minor
- 2—Bacchante
- 3—Sonata in B Minor
- 1st Movt.—Allegro Maestoso
- 2nd Movt.—Scherzo: Molto Vivace
- 3rd Movt.—Largo
- 4th Movt.—Presto ma non tanto
- 4—(a) Preludes in C & C Minor
- (b) Etude in A Flat
- (c) Nocturne in D Flat
- (d) Scherzo in B Flat Minor

PLASTIC SURGERY
PIONEER

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Jan. 18.

The tribute paid in the course of a lawsuit to the work of Sir Harold Gillies, the famous plastic surgeon, will not surprise any who have been his patients.

The achievements of the young New Zealand doctor during the war in supplying incredibly mutilated soldiers with new limbs and faces were something more than remarkable.

His collection of casts of facial war wounds would be a grim one if he did not also show one photograph of the same faces after they had been successfully treated.

High Tees

Sir Harold is tall and genial, and has a highly developed gift of invention. This shows itself not only in the surgery but on the golf course.

An old golfing Blue, he at one time indulged in the most bizarre of tees. One was a piece of rubber tubing nine inches high. Another was a ginger-beer bottle.

Ultimately, however, he returned to a more conventional type of tee on the representations of his friends.

BRITAIN'S NEW NAVAL PROGRAMME

No Big Building This Year

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Jan. 18.

This year's Navy Estimates, which will be circulated at the end of February, are not expected to contain sensational features, writes a correspondent.

The building programme will include two, if not three, cruisers of the 9,000-ton Southampton class, one smaller cruiser, a flotilla leader, eight destroyers, and three submarines.

Cruiser construction is still regulated by the London Treaty, and will remain so till the end of 1936. We have, however, a very large number of obsolete destroyers and submarines which could be replaced without delay, but in spite of this there is no likelihood of a substantial increase in the number of such vessels to be voted.

Partly for reasons of economy, and partly from a desire to refrain from any action which might prejudice the prospects of naval limitation, the authorities have not yet approved any large programme for rebuilding the Fleet. It is, however, fully recognised that such a programme will have to be launched unless the 1938 Naval Conference results in a universal scaling down of naval armaments.

The critical year for British sea power will be 1939, and it is them that big decisions in regard to future construction and manning will in all probability, have to be taken.

The forthcoming Estimates are expected to provide for an increase in personnel, together with substantial additions to the Fleet Air Arm. There is to be a marked acceleration in the process of equipping the Navy with shipborne aircraft, catapults and landing gear.

Autogiros For Navy

Recent Italian navy experiments with aircraft of the autogiro type, one of which successfully alighted on a cruiser steaming at 24 knots, have created no surprise in British naval circles.

The possibilities of the autogiro have been recognised in the British Navy for some time past. It is understood, indeed, that certain tests have been made, and it is not unlikely that autogiros may in the near future be added to the Fleet Air Arm.

Tentative designs have been prepared for all classes of ships, even down to destroyers, specially equipped for carrying aircraft, including autogiros. In the destroyer one of these machines would be housed in a hangar just forward of the bridge, in the space usually occupied by the bow gun.

While naval circles believe that the autogiro has a great future, they do not consider that in its present stage of development it would be an efficient substitute for the normal type of machine. For the present, therefore, big aircraft carriers are indispensable.

60 YEARS A LAWYER

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Jan. 18.

Mr. Justice Avey, now 84, will in a few days celebrate the diamond jubilee of his association with the law.

Several of his present King's Bench colleagues were unborn when he was called to the Bar on Jan. 23, 1875.

Nurtured in the Old Bailey, and prominently a criminal lawyer, he quickly established a sound position, though sometimes pitted against such Leviathans as the veteran Poland Charles Mathews, and Charles Gill.

The complaint has been paid to him that he never made a job for the sake of the job, and therefore never made a bad one.

THE REWARDS OF PEACE

The Nobel Peace Prizes have gone to purveyors of Geneva spirit. Mr. Arthur Henderson took the $25,000 or so available for the current year and Sir Norman Angell secured the guerdon of 1933; and the dove of peace has laid a nice little nest-egg in both their laps. These rewards are some solace for the exile the recipients have faced in pursuit of an ideal. Without complaining, Mr. Henderson has stayed on year after year at Geneva; and Sir Norman Angell, solitary on his island of Northey unburdened his heart in articles and books. Both gentlemen, from their respective stations, woo Peace for her own sake, but if the not impossible she turns out to have a dowry, it is one fascination more. We scarcely know which suitor more deserves this prize.

Sir Norman Angell is a model of conscientious constancy; search his record and his most militaristic action is the founding of a troop of Boy Scouts. He used to extol the ex-Kaiser's pacifism long before the war and when 1914 made that seem a little premature, he tried to make us pacifists at home. Though his meetings might have been broken up, under the shelter

ENGINEERING IN CHEKIANG

Work For Labour Relief

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Hanchow, Feb. 2.

While a gloomy atmosphere pervades the realm of Chinese industry and despondency is the keynote of all discussions concerning Chian's business prospects, powerful constructive forces are shaping the destiny of the nation and laying the foundation of a prosperous era. These forces are the extensive and intensive activities now being carried on by the National Government in various fields of economic reconstruction.

China is, and must clearly remain, essentially an agricultural country. No substantial progress of any kind can be made unless the peasants' margin of livelihood can be increased. The Chekiang Provincial Department of Reconstruction has, therefore, planned a large scale engineering work for labour relief. For the promotion of conservancy work in the province alone, a sum of $1,000,000 from the $20,000,000 Provincial Reconstruction Loan has been assigned. A full measure of utilising the refugee labour in the undertaking has been considered. The Provincial Government has decided to remit $150,000 for the dredging and reconditioning of the ponds, rivers, and other waterways, for which, as estimated, some 6,500 refugees will be employed.

Besides the handling of relief and reconstruction measures of this kind, the Provincial Government has definitely allotted the sum of $1,000,000 to build the projected Hanchow-Shanlien, Kashing-Huchow and Hangyu-Siaofeng Highways in the northern part of the province. Survey have been started and 20,000 refugees will be engaged in the construction.

of the police force Sir Norman never wavered; and only recently he wrote again of the perils of patriotism, declaring that it becomes "more evil and more dangerous as the years go by." So there is one career that merits a prize.

Mr. Arthur Henderson, perhaps, has been less single-minded. For most of his life he was interested in peace only in an abstract way, his whole endeavours being devoted to the sort of politics now deprecated as a "dog-fight." He has been much misled; yet his friends are consoled by knowing that as Chairman of the Disarmament Conference he enjoys the meed of a Minister at the head of a table instead of on the front bench. As uncrowned King of Geneva, his rewards have been nearly as liberal as when Secretary for Foreign Affairs and his worries much less. If Gossip We Must

(By "PRUDENCE")

Our local Amazons were well to the fore last Tuesday, when the Hong Kong Ladies Hockey Association held their Annual Dance, this year at the Peninsula Hotel.

The guests of the evening were, of course, the Shanghai-Ladies. After watching them, (grim and determined), in their masculine shorts and shirts, on the hockey field, I could not help being struck by the contrast they presented when they came to the Ball, looking so completely dainty and feminine in their brilliant dresses. The only one who showed the scars of battle was pretty Miss Sylva—who was decorated by a large strip of plaster which proved that she had stopped at least one ball, with her head!

The President, Mrs. Tam, Pierce was there of course, and looked very charming in pale blue. Mrs.

bara Hance looked very sweet in shades of moonlight-blue taffeta, and her sister was simply superb in black velvet. Freda Tuxford too looked vivid in black and allyer. Mrs. Prisma had a most alluring dress of pure white and Mrs. Collis was very graceful in coffee-coloured lace. Pamela Potter looked fragile and dainty in a palest yellow and Elizabeth Monkton was fresh and charming as ever. The Marquis de Farchalo danced every dance, he never misses a "big night" and is one of the Colony's keenest dancers. These "Late-Nights" are certainly a success and more people than ever are becoming dance-minded the only people I feel sorry for—are the tiny pages and call-boys who seem very young to be up so late. But I expect they are allowed to sleep longer in the morning.

girls wore it with great success, and so did Mrs. Vera Harvey, and everybody loved her cape, too. There is something so festive about those seraphic looking white feathers.

It was nice to see Lady Shenton back again after quite a long spell of "home." Everybody was buzzing round her like bees round the proverbial honey pot. She must have been pleased with the appearance of her daughter who looked wonderful in green satin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Paterson have also returned to the Colony and looked very fit and cheerful. It is fun to see our old friends again.

Although our Rugger team failed to win they seem to have had a marvellous time in Shanghai. One long party in fact, "Tiny" Munro was in great form, having arrived back in Hong Kong that morning.

This week is going to be a busy one. All sorts of exciting private parties. And the S.P.C.A. dinner dance on Friday too. I'm told, on good authority, that the cabaret is going to be wonderful, so it behooves us to book tables in good time.

FANLING RACES

Fanling yesterday drew its regular supporters and although we did not have a bright sunny day for it, the sport lost none of its attraction. Mr. Bill Stanton was in great form, and won a splendid race on No Fear after being just beaten in the previous race on Belinda. The ladies race, as usual, was the tit-bit of the programme, but I am afraid not many people spotted the winner! Miss E. Turbett rode a fine race to account for a field of eleven with Wakefield. A racing friend who saw her ride tells me that she should go far among local lady riders. Miss Scott Harston tried to run away with her mount, but Spinaway was not equal to the jumps and lost ground each time he approached the hurdles. Miss Yvonne Shenton handled Wembley Stag very well indeed, but the pony found the earlier pace too much for him and nothing Miss Shenton could do, could bring the pony up with the leaders at the finish.

The cross-country races (there were two of them) provided some good riding, and Mr. G. W. Morris is to be complimented on the wonderful finish he managed to get out of Festival Eve. In the other race, Racing Strain won again (for the third time in succession) giving Mr. B. C. Field a splendid ride.

The Pigeons of Hong Kong

"Tiny" White had a most fascinating frock with black shoulder straps. Alwen Owen-Hughes looked awfully nice in white and green and Barbara and Heather Hance wore their Bridesmaids dresses of brown and flame colour (reminiscent of the Churchill-Moutrie wedding a few weeks ago). I looked everywhere for Audrey Jacks, but I saw Helen Knill in red, and Evelyn Gray in a lovely dress of blue and silver and Ann Fowler in silver and green. Joan Smalley and her two sisters had charming flower-hued dresses and there were lots of others. The local Sports-Hearties turned up in force and the Football Club sent along a big contingent of Boy-Friends.

There were a lot of speeches round about twelve o'clock, and I guess they were good ones, by the laughter and applause which punctuated them, the personally I was too far away to hear much. The Shanghai Team—(like Cinderella) had to keep an eye on the clock, since their N.Y.K. sailed at midnight, so they had to fly for their lives, with the strains of "For they are jolly good fellows" still ringing in their ears. There was a great crush at "the Hotel" on Saturday night. All the regular "Saturday-Nighters" were there and a great many others too. Parties galore and tables at a premium.

One of the first people I noticed was Mrs. Felix Joseph looking very beautiful in turquoise blue satin. She was with her sister Mrs. Maxwell Morris who has come out East for a short holiday. Miss Toledano was there too, and most enchanting in oyster satin. Barbara Henderson, perhaps, has been less single-minded. For most of his life he was interested in peace only in an abstract way, his whole endeavours being devoted to the sort of politics now deprecated as a "dog-fight." Frankly, but for the catastrophe of 1931, when the Socialist section he led into electoral battle were annihilated, Mr. Henderson might never have perceived the full charms of Peace, nor permanently renounced Westminster for Geneva. He has been much misled; yet his friends are consoled by knowing that as Chairman of the Disarmament Conference he enjoys the meed of a Minister at the head of a table instead of on the front bench. GOVERNMENT HOUSE BALL

Everybody looked very gay and happy at the Government House ball on Friday night, and there were so many lovely dresses it is difficult to know which to tell you about.

Lady Peel, our gracious hostess, wore white satin with the loveliest old-rose ostrich feather cape.

Mrs. Lindsell had a beautifully cut gown of the new deep violet shade, with the fashionable slit up in front. (By the way I wonder if Paris dress designers took a hint from Chinese contemporaries?)

Another example of the slit skirt was seen in the wonderful black creation worn by Miss Bird.

Altogether black seemed a very popular colour. Both the Dodwell

The Kowlooners

LOCAL AND GENERAL

The next Kowloon Cricket Club Dance will be held on Saturday, February 23rd, from 9.30 p.m. until 1.30 a.m. The band will be under the direction of Mrs. Nura Kanis and those who have danced to this excellent combination of musicians have every reason to look forward to an enjoyable evening's entertainment. Members and their friends are asked to make a note of this date.

One case of small pox, two cases of Diphtheria and one of Enteric Fever were reported to the Health Authorities during the twenty-four hours ended February 8.

David Edgar, Saville, John Mahoney, Leigh Drollet and Russell Floyd, members of the A.A. President Grant, who were Crown witnesses in the manslaughter charge against Alva C. Chow of the same boat (and who was subsequently discharged), left on Saturday afternoon for the States by the s.s. President Jefferson.

A debate will be held at the Y.M.C.A. next Wednesday in the West Lounge at 8 p.m. The ladies to be represented by Miss Curtin and Miss Heap, will propose "That men are greater slaves to convention than women." The men will be represented by Messrs. A. C. Jeffries and E. F. Bell.

The Annual Branch Meeting of the Overseas League will be held in the Lounge of Messrs. Lane, Crawford next Wednesday at 5.15 p.m. Tea will be served at an inclusive cost of $1.00.

PIRATES HEADING FOR BRITISH TERRITORY?

MESSAGE FROM BIAS BAY

Frontier Patrols Warned To Keep Watch

Since the piracy on the Butterfield and Swire s.s. Tungchow, the authorities concerned have been relentlessly combing the suspected areas in the hope of capturing the pirates. It will be recalled that one arrest had already been reported.

The systematic way in which the local police in conjunction with the Naval authorities are doing their part of the work has resulted in information being received from the Bias Bay area to the effect that some of the pirates are making for British territories with property stolen in the piracy in their possession. Frontier patrols have been warned to be specially on the alert and the Water Police Station and the Yau-mat Police Station have been instructed to pay particular attention to passengers alighting from trains.

Reports which reached the Colony on Saturday morning of the piracy of two Japanese steamers, the "Dell Maru" and the "Kamuru Maru," off Bias Bay on Friday have happily turned out to be untrue. Reuter wired from Shanghai on Saturday that a report emanating from semi-official Japanese quarters had stated that British warships were on their way to assist the Kamuru Maru, of 2,175 tons, while the Navy Office in Tokyo had instructed the Japanese Commander-in-Chief in Chinese waters to take appropriate action.

The reported piracy was definitely denied by the naval authorities in Hong Kong. It appears that the story originated from the fact that the Dell Maru (O.S.K.) was reported to have been pirated on Thursday, on the way from Hong Kong to Swatow. This later proved to be incorrect, and it turned out that the "Dell Maru" was delayed by bad weather, but had since reached Swatow. When news of the delayed arrival of the "Dell Maru" reached Swatow, a Japanese gunboat left Swatow to search for her, and later H.M.S. Decoy followed up. The "Dell Maru" arrived in Swatow on Friday evening.

FIRST NEWS

Shanghai, Feb. 8. The Japanese vessel Kamuru Maru, 2175 tons, was pirated off Bias Bay on Thursday while bound for Japan from Hong Kong, according to a semi-official Japanese report.

It adds that British warships had gone to the rescue while the Navy Office in Tokyo has instructed the Commander-in-Chief in Chinese waters to take appropriate action.

A later message from Shanghai states that British warships are rushing to the rescue of the Kamuru Maru, which was en route from Hong Kong to Japan when seized by pirates off Bias Bay. Reuter.

THE BRITISH INDUSTRIES FAIR

Record Attendance Expected: Ireland Have Most Buyers

London, Feb. 9. The British Industries Fair opens in London on Monday week and buyers are now on their way to it from all parts of the world. They are coming from over seventy countries and the Department of Overseas Trade say that there will be a definite increase over the number who attended last year, both at the London sections of the Fair and at the engineering and hardware section which opens in Birmingham on May 20.

The Irish Free State will have the most buyers from within the British Commonwealth with Canada, India, South Africa, Australia and New Zealand next in order. Holland is sending twice as many as any other foreign country followed by France, Germany, Belgium, Denmark and the United States. Organised parties are sailing to London from Helsinki, Oslo and Gothenburg next week. One delegation from Paris will include among its sixty-five members, representatives of the Paris Fair of the Municipality of Paris, the Paris Chamber of Commerce, the Lille Fair and the French Textile Industries. BRITISH GUIANA HAVE FIRST KNOCK Georgetown, Feb. 9. The three-day match between British Guiana and the M.C.C. opened here to-day when the home team batted first. At the close of play they had scored 178 for 8 of which Wishart claimed 56. Reuter.

MALARIA OUTBREAK

Colombo, February 9. It is estimated that at least 30,000 people have died during the malaria epidemic in Ceylon 8,000 of whom were from the Central Province. In order to ensure the proper distribution of relief, convalescent homes throughout Ceylon are to be taken under Government control. Reuter.

"WHEN THE SWORD IS LOST"

Dresden, Feb. 10. A rearmend Germany is the best guarantee for the peace of Europe, expressed General Goering in a speech during his official visit. He said:—"When some high English officers recently asked me what Germany was doing for peace, I replied that the greatest thing Germany could do was to rearm. When the sword is lost, peace is lost." Reuter.

"GOLD CLAUSE" DECISION

Reason For The Delay

Washington, Feb. 10. Well-informed circles attribute the delay of announcing the gold decision to the slowness with which the dissenters—whichever side they represent—are preparing. Opinions are that the decision will be possible any day next week after February 11, the Court being in session all week. The Court meets on February 18 to deliver the opinions and then recesses for a fortnight. It is generally believed that in view of the financial uncertainty, the Court will endeavour to hand down its decision on February 18. Reuter.

COURT ADJOURNED

Washington, Feb. 9. The possibility that the Supreme Court's decision on the "Gold Clause" would be known to-day vanished with the adjournment of the Court till Monday. It was later announced that there will be no decision on the "Gold Clause" till Monday. Reuter.

"FOR DEFENCE PURPOSES"

New Hawaiian Air Base

Washington, Feb. 9. It is revealed that a proposal for the construction of a U.S.$11,000,000 air base at Hawaii and also an expenditure of U.S.$2,000,000 for the strengthening of coastal defences, including guns, at Hawaii, Alaska, and elsewhere were discussed at a meeting between the army High Command, headed by General Douglas MacArthur, and the House of Representatives' Military Committee. The chairman of the Committee, Mr. John J. McSwain, emphasised that any action taken would be for "defensive purposes," adding that the proposals implied nothing. General MacArthur recommended the purchase of 800 armoured aeroplanes, costing U.S.$90,000,000, in order to give the army an aerial armada of 2,320 modern aircraft as recommended by the War Department committee on July 22 last year. THE ANGLO-FRENCH CONVERSATIONS

Not Directed Against Any Other Countries

London, Feb. 9. Sir John Simon's speech at the British Chamber of Commerce in Paris was delivered in the presence of the French Premier, Flandin who himself spoke later. The British Foreign Secretary referring to the Anglo-French conversations had emphasised that the work then done was not directed against any other country. "We are not aiming at some limited understanding but we are seeking to promote the peace and well-being of all by putting forward the suggestions as the basis for free and equal negotiation between all concerned in order that the structure of peace may rest on the surest and wisest foundations. If it is recognised that we are working together in that spirit and if others whom we invite to consult with us will make their contribution in the same comprehending spirit, then I believe that in this year we may see a great advance towards the establishment of those conditions upon which most political confidence and commercial prosperity depend."

NO RELUCTANCE

The "Times" says that this passage, delivered with emphasis, was intended to convey assurance to the German Government that the preliminary consultations between the French and British Governments did not in any sense imply reluctance for simultaneous and equal discussion of questions involved with all powers concerned, as soon as this became possible.

In a speech made later, M. Flandin said the French and British Governments had achieved a complete unity of purpose. They had made a solemn appeal to the human desire for peace. Their first aim was to prevent ruin and murder. Those who fought in the war believed in a better future for humanity. In flying across the Channel, one saw that France and Great Britain had the same sky—a sky which they would not allow to become a conveyor of death. British Wireless.

WHERE GERMANY DISAGREES

Paris, Feb. 10. Discussing the exchange of opinions between Sir John Simon and M. Flandin during the banquet of the British Chamber of Commerce in Paris, the "Paris Soir" asserts that the two statesmen agreed that no progress could be made before Hitler's questionaire, which is expected in a week's time, is known. The paper emphasises that the view of the British Foreign Office is that Germany will want to treat each question separately whereas the Franco-British plan is presented as a whole and is indivisible. Above all Berlin will try to wreck the Eastern Locarno Pact but the French Government is determined not to allow any needless procrastination. Apart from that view which prevails in London, all agreed that Germany must be given ample time for reflections. Transocean Kuo Min.

"SAME IDEAS"

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press") (By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, February 10, 4.30 a.m.) Paris, Feb. 9.

The will to peace formed the keynote of the speeches delivered on Friday night by Sir John Simon and M. Flandin at the annual banquet of the British Chamber of Commerce in Paris at which the two statesmen were the guests of honour.

Sir John in his speech declared that France and Great Britain were not only united by the same political ideas based on the democratic parliamentary system, but both countries were likewise endeavouring, after four years of murderous war, to freely and humanely co-operate with other States for the foundations of lasting peace. Franco-British co-operation, said Sir John, is indispensable in order to accomplish this task. It would be impossible to extinguish in British hearts the living memory of those days of common struggle but at the same time it is also impossible to forget the resolution repeatedly taken by both Governments to work side by side for the attainment of peace and security.

THE PREMIER REPLIES

Premier Flandin after thanking Sir John Simon for his cordial references to France, said that nothing, in the aims of either Great Britain or France, was directed against anyone else, the object of both countries being to make a solemn appeal to all peaceful nations in the hope of obtaining a hearing for the voice of humanity so that those children who will be born to-morrow shall not perish in war. The French Premier emphasised that Great Britain and France were not intending new means for an air pact to punish culprits but to prevent slaughter and ruin.

Following the banquet, Sir John Simon and M. Flandin had a long conversation concerning the developments since the publication of the London declaration of February 3. Transocean Kuo Min.

FRANCE OBJECTS TO CONFERENCES

But Favours Exchange Of Notes

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press") (By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, February 10, 4.30 a.m.) Paris, Feb. 9.

In an interview with the diplomatic correspondent of "Oeuvre," M. Flandin, the French Premier, said that France opposed to the four, five or six Power conferences in order to arrive at a settlement of the various questions but will insist on the exchange of notes through the usual diplomatic channels or the convocation of the Disarmament Conference. The chief topic of conversation, asserts "Oeuvre," was, however, the East Locarno Pact and the situation which would arise if Germany finally refused to participate. The paper claims authority in stating that M. Flandin had stressed France's wish to continue negotiations with the Soviet Union immediately although Sir John Simon did not attempt to hide the fact that since the Franco-British discussions the British attitude to the East Locarno Pact had changed considerably in favour of the London proposals.

Pertinax in the "Echo de Paris" confirms the view that the French Government's chief anxiety is to make further progress with the East Locarno Pact, negotiations with the Soviet Union and the Little Entente which are urging the resumption of the discussions and reminding France of the agreements of December 5 and January 18, whereby the conclusion of this pact was given precedence to all other inter-European pact schemes.

DISCONNECTED REPORTS

The paper emphasises that in the course of the London discussions, France did not sacrifice her freedom to act in the military and political fields and asserts that if the verbatim report of these discussions were published, the public would be astonished to see how indefinite and disconnected they were. The official communiqué drawn up by diplomatic officials whose acquaintance with the material is better than that of the ministers themselves, "writes like crystal in the future," says the ministerial spokesman. Gordon's GIN

THE HEART OF A GOOD COCKTAIL

THE ITALIAN VIEWPOINT

Concerning The Air Pact

Paris, Feb. 9. Italy is making no reservations with regard to Franco-Italian aerial reciprocity in the proposed air convention, according to a telegram from Rome. Her reservation relates only to Britain.

A later cable from Rome states that an official communiqué says that Italy's position in regard to the proposed air convention will shortly be settled on the lines of the agreement principle, taking into account Italy's special situation with regard to Great Britain and vice-versa. Reuter.

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press") (By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, February 9, 7.30 p.m.) Rome, Feb. 9.

A communiqué issued by the Italian Government on Saturday officially set forth for the first time its attitude towards the results of the London Franco-British ministerial deliberations. The Italian Government welcomes the accord reached, believes that the basis for an understanding with Germany is found but makes certain reservations concerning the Air pact. This communiqué is believed to represent the personal views of Mussolini.

The wording of the communiqué is as follows:—

"Responsible circles in Italy have been kept exactly informed about the course of deliberations in London between the French and the British Governments and have followed the developments with the closest attention. The declarations, summarising the results of these discussions, are viewed here with sympathy, the view being taken that it embraces the possibility of reaching an understanding with Germany and hence the inaugurating of the period of co-operation among the Governments interested. As regards the Pact about the obligation to render mutual aid in the case of an air attack, the Italian attitude, briefly stated, is an agreement in principle but with reservations as regards the standpoint of Italy's special situation in relation to Great Britain and vice-versa. Responsible circles in Italy have also, with satisfaction, taken cognisance of the attitude of Great Britain towards the question of the independence of Austria and towards the Franco-Italian accords on January 7." THE FLANDIN REGIME

Its Days Numbered?

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press") (By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, February 10, 7.30 p.m.) Paris, Feb. 10.

Despite the achievements of Flandin's Government in the realm of foreign politics in the short time it has been in office, parliamentary circles declare that the days of the national government are numbered. Not only have the Socialists and Communists combined forces against the Government but a large section of the Radical-Socialists is in a state of dissatisfaction. Herriot's influence over his supporters appears to have diminished since the London deliberations.

Discussing the situation, La Presse says that "the most suitable successor for Flandin would be Laval but at the present stage of development he can hardly separate from his chief. Moreover, Flandin has the strongest support in Herriot who is by no means prepared to undertake the onerous task of leading the Government. Daladier is as ambitious as ever but even in his own party nobody dreams of seeing him Premier because of his association in the public mind with the events of February 9, 1934. The Paris Soir takes view that after all Flandin would not allow the Chamber and proclaim new elections." Transocean Kuo Min.

ANGLO-AMERICAN CO-OPERATION

General Smuts Speaks His Views

Capetown, Feb. 9. A policy for practical Anglo-American co-operation in the Pacific for the maintenance of the integrity of China and future peace is the most important step that is takeable in international affairs to-day, declared General Smuts in an address at the South African Institute for International Affairs. Unless the United States co-operated in the economic or other isolation of the aggressor, the Paris Peace Pact must remain a pious aspiration. Britain anyhow would want to know that in any future emergency, her support of the League decision would not place her at loggerheads with the United States on the high seas. The Stimson declaration needed to be clarified and made the basis of a practical policy on which reliance could be placed even without membership of the League or entangling commitments. Reuter.

KEEN RACING AT KWANTI

Wakefield Pays Supporters 35-1 In Ladies' Race

There was some very keen racing at Kwanti yesterday, when a large attendance was present to see the Faulling Hunt and Race Club's February Meeting.

In five of the six races, the result was very open and the race was not decided until the last few strides. The most notable success of the afternoon was the win by Wakefield in the Ladies' Race. Ridden by Miss E. Turbett, the pony paid his supporters $176.70 for a win.

Mr. V. V. Needs from Shanghai won with Pride of Tsingtao in the Shung Shui Steeplechase from Burgomaster. He rode a splendid race.

FLUMMERY UPSETS FAVOURITES

In the opening race, Mr. Davis rode a very patient race to score a win over Belinda. The race was over two miles and Kilrea took turns with Lucy Gitters to show the pace, but both were well beaten half a mile from home, when Belinda and Flummery began to creep up on the leaders. In a gruelling race home, Mr. Davis got the better of Mr. Stanton's mount by a short head. Lucy Gitters was third.

NO FEAR WINS

Soldier of Italy started a warm favourite for the Fat Chow Handicap, a hurdle race over a mile and a half. The pony led over a mile and a quarter, but when joined by No Fear put up a losing struggle in the home straight. The two ponies were separated by a length over the last hurdle, but Soldier of Italy refused to be shaken off thereafter and put up a good race over the last fifty yards. No Fear on the other hand was equally game and ultimately won by a length. Widnes was third.

NEEDA WINS

Mr. Needs did not have to ride very hard on Pride of Tsingtao to win from Burgomaster. These two drew all the betting. Tillcum went out to make the pace, but Burgomaster and Pride of Tsingtao were quickly up with him, and there was not much in the race all the way round until coming in the home straight, when Pride of Tsingtao drew away to win easily by four lengths. Five lengths separated Burgomaster from Tillcum. There were two other starters.

FESTIVAL EVE

Festival Eve and Tom Cobley fought out an exciting finish at the end of the Fox Hunter's Race over about three miles of rough country. Tom Cobley led all the way and only failed when Festival Eve challenged him in the home straight. Mr. Morris rode a good race here to win on the post. Jack O'Lantern was third.

THE DIANA CUP

Spinaway and Marina led vigorously at the start of the ladies race, being followed closely by Wembley Stag and Wakefield. On the run home these four ponies put up a very fine race and Miss E. Turbett, who rode Wakefield, put up a stirring race to finish a length in front of Spinaway (ridden by Miss Scott Harston), and Wembley Stag (ridden by Miss Yvonne Shenton). The winner was well handled throughout. The dividend paid on Wakefield was $176.70 while place supporters received $36.50.

RACING STRAIN

Racing Strain won the last race in grand fashion coming home four lengths in front of Glenshee and Golden Star. When the field turned in for the home straight from the country there was very little between the leaders but Mr. Field, who rode the winner managed to get more out of his mount than the other two. Glenshee finished quite strongly to get the verdict from Golden Star after negotiating the last hurdle almost together.

The favourite for this race, Winchester Stag, was unplaced.

WEEK-END FOOTBALL

South China "A" Checked FUSILIERS WELCOMED RETURN OF FORM

Plenty of interesting football was served during the week end and a feature of which was the welcomed return of form of the Fusiliers. Forcing a creditable win over the Recreation on Saturday, they checked the advances of South China "A" yesterday when the unbeaten senior team was forced to a goalless draw. South China was certainly lucky as they were all spread-eagled and if the Fusiliers had been a little more steady in front of goal the Chinese would have left the field a beaten team.

On Saturday, South China "A" just managed to beat the Navy which was also against the run of the play.

Playing better football than the China Athletic the Gunners forced a good victory yesterday by four goals to two, thanks to the brilliant display given by Durham, Morton and Pardoe.

Club and Lincolns played a drawn game on Saturday. Their defence stood out well against the attacks of Hickey and Co., while Kowloon were beaten by the E. Lanes by four goals to one.

A thrilling and exciting game was witnessed yesterday at the Bookunpoo ground, when the Gunners defeated the China Athletic by four goals to two in the senior league encounter.

From the start the Chinese were early attacking but Pardoe relieved.

The Gunners attacked in turn and a good centre from the left was converted by Morton.

Leung Tak Fo tested Durham hotly and play was transferred to the Chinese half. While the Chinese were appealing for off side Edmunds coolly ran through to score the Gunners' second goal.

Numerous raids were made on the Gunners' goal from one of which Chen Chun Wo reduced the lead.

"Hands" against the Chinese inside the area was converted by Pardoe.

After this the Chinese settled down to some classy football but the Gunners' defence was equal to the occasion. From one of Edmunds' centres Morton scored the fourth goal.

The second half was more hotly contested both defences played well. Chen Chun Wo was the pick of the Chinese attack and gave Pardoe and his men a gruelling time. From one of Chen's movements Lo Wai Kuen scored.

Outclassed from beginning to end South China "A" the leader of the Senior Division managed to force a goalless draw against the Fusiliers yesterday. The game started with the Fusiliers attacking with the Chinese backs clearing weakly. Wong Wing was called upon to deal with shots from all angles.

A rush down the field saw Wong passing feebly. Keneghan robbed Fung after he had received from Wong.

Fusiliers returned to the attack but unsteadiness in front of goal robbed them of the fruits of their efforts. The Chinese were harassed time and again and although Li Tin Sang cleared it was left to Wong Wing to do the needful.

The Chinese were playing much below par. The forwards were not getting together—passing weak and objectives sadly missed.

The Fusiliers' forwards were playing well together but once they neared the Chinese goal, weak finishes were the result.

The second half was a repetition of the first. With the exception of sporadic breakaways the Fusiliers' defence aided by the good work of Keneghan at centre half repulsed their movements.

THIRD DIVISION

The Club de Recreo and the R.A.S.C. played a drawn game of three goals all. The Portuguese rushed the soldiers off their feet in the first half when all three of the goals were scored. After the interval R.A.S.C. improved greatly and equalised.

FRIENDLY GAME

A inter hong match between the Hong Kong Electric and the Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank was played yesterday and resulted in a win by the Electric by six goals to two. At the interval the score was 2 to 1 in their favour.

Saturday's Games

SENIOR DIVISION

Fledding practically a new team with the exception of two old players, the Navy 1st XI were decidedly unlucky to have lost to S. China "A" by the odd goal in three after enjoying the greater part of the game.

The Chinese were without the services of Wong Wing in goal and, but for the fact that Lee Tin Sang played a sterling game at back, S. China "A" would certainly have lost.

South China scored within five minutes from the commencement. Leung Wing Chiu taking a free kick against Moss sent in a shot to the far corner of the net to beat Crocker all the way.

Navy then went away but Roberts hit the cross bar.

South China missed a glorious chance when Crocker dived at full length to effect a smart save from Fung who shot from a three-yard range.

Just before the interval, Navy equalised. Following a corner taken by Kiley, Gray headed into the net.

After the interval Navy attacked for Gray to head against the bar.

Li Tin Sang was putting in some good work, robbing the Navy forwards of their nice movements and saving time and again.

After ten minutes' play, Ip receiving from Tam, scored with a grand slam to put S. China ahead again.

Navy retaliated and S. China made two successive raids which Crocker saved in grand style.

Enjoying the greater portion of the game Club de Recreo lost to the Fusiliers by four goals to two at King's Park on Saturday.

Rowlands in the soldiers' goal played an excellent game, incidentally saving two penalties.

Recreo opened the attack hotly. The Fusiliers' halves repulsed splendidly. B. Gosano opened the scoring with a neat header.

MIXED DOUBLES TENNIS

Goldman And Miss Hancock Win

L. Goldman and Miss R. Hancock won the Colony's Mixed Doubles Lawn Tennis Championship on Saturday when they defeated H. D. Rumjahn and Mrs. Chiu Chun-Chiu in the Finals played at the Chinese Recreation Club, by 6-3 and 6-2.

Goldman and Miss Hancock took four games in a row in the first set, but Rumjahn and Mrs. Chiu were able to reduce the lead to 4-3. At this point, Mrs. Chiu became erratic in her driving and Goldman and his partner took the set at 6-3.

The second set began also with the score at 4-0 in Goldman's favour and although Rumjahn played brilliantly, this deficit was too much and he and his partner went under by 6-2.

Goldman and Miss Hancock in the course of the championship accounted for Lee Wai Tong and Miss Tsao, and Capt. E. Manners and Mrs. Grimble. Rumjahn and Mrs. Chiu had previously beaten Mr. and Mrs. Ho Ka Lau and Mr. and Mrs. Kayli.

The following were the results of the golf matches decided over the week-end:—

Junior Championship. C. H. Burton beat H. Hampton 4 and 3 and now meets I. MacKnight in the final.

G.M.-Young-Cup Final. Chartered Bank beat A.P.C. Captains Cup 1934 Semi-finals. A. Sommerfelt beat A. McKellar 2 and 1.

Comdr. Hole beat D. S. Edward 2 and 1.

WEEK-END CRICKET

Dunne Scores Century

NAVY'S CHALLENGE CHECKED

A feature of the week-end cricket was the fine display by P. O. Dunne of the Kowloon Cricket Club, who, playing against the University in a Junior League encounter, scored 114 runs before he was bowled by G. Abraham.

The Royal Navy, closest challengers to the Hong Kong C.C. for the Premier League honours, were checked by the Club de Recreio. The only other Premier League game played was that between the University and Kowloon Cricket Club which ended in a draw.

Four games were played in the Junior Division. The Kowloon Cricket Club defeated the University by 9 wickets; playing at home to the Service Corps, the Police were beaten by 5 wickets while the Royal Engineers had a comparatively easy win over the Civil Service at the Valley Ground. The Royal Navy accounted for the Club de Recreio by 68 runs.

The Hong Kong Cricket Club and the Indian Recreation Club senior and junior elevens were engaged in friendly matches. The game between the senior sides at Sookunpoo was won by the visitors, while the Juniors played a drawn game.

Caer Clark Cup Games

"Y" LADIES v. C.B.S.
In a Caer Clark Cup encounter at King's Park, the Y.M.C.A. ladies defeated the Central British School by 4 goals to 1 on Saturday after being led by 1 goal to nil at the interval.

At the opening stages of play, the schoolgirls were pressing, and only five minutes from the start Miss J. Lakeman gave the C.B.S. the lead, which they held until the interval.

On resuming the students immediately showed signs of cracking up, and from the edge of the circle, Miss Fowler equalised for the "Y" with a hard ground shot. A fine movement on the part of Miss Brown resulted in Miss Fowler netting again to give her side the lead. Then the C.B.S. were given an easy chance to level the score when they were awarded a penalty bully and after a keen tussle for possession, Miss Lakeman shot but missed. The schoolgirls' defenders worked like trojans to keep back the "Y" forwards, but Miss P. McCaw scored another for the Y.M.C.A. and about 10 minutes from time, Miss Fowler netted the final goal with a beautiful shot.

The teams were:—

Y.M.C.A.:—W. George; J. Wilson and R. Ingram; M. Gardiner, E. Thompson and B. Blumenthal; T. Dennis, L. Hickey, P. McCaw, A. Fowler and O. Brown.

C.B.S.:—J. Whiteman; M. Lamert and R. Stevenson; K. Moir, M. McCaw and C. Bone; E. Rousseau, J. Humphreys, J. Lakeman, A. Martin and P. Stringer.

SAINTS' GALLANT DISPLAY

A scrappy game was witnessed at King's Park on Saturday when the Central British Association met the St. Andrew's Ladies the game resulting in a draw of one goal each.

The St. Andrew's side were playing one short, Mrs. R. Rose, their custodian failing to make an appearance. In spite of this misfortune they held the strong C.B.A. team to a draw.

The Saints are now on level terms with the Hong Kong Ladies, the holders of the Cup, and as both are expected to win their remaining two matches, it is probable that they will have to play off for the title.

From the start, the C.B.A. took up the offensive and pressed, but the St. Andrew's defence was stolid repulsing promising movements time and again. Miss M. Smith scored, but about ten from time Miss M. Woolley got in a well-placed pass and equalised from the edge of the circle.

The teams were:—
C.B.A.:—S. Best; F. Walker, and B. Woolley; M. Bryson, E. Beavis and G. MacNider; R. Blackmore, M. Smith, E. Woolley, N. Whitley and D. Hunt.

St. Andrew's:—G. White and L. Jorge; P. Everest, J. Wong and I. Woolley; F. Wong, I. Gittins, N. Woolley, P. Gittins and M. Churn.

MAMAK TOURNAMENT

CORNWALL'S FIRST VICTORY

The H.M.S. Cornwall recorded their first victory in the Mamak Hockey tournament on Saturday when they defeated the Royal Army Service Corps by 3 goals to 1 at Happy Valley.

Hallowell and Lt. Mill played a good game for the Cornwall at back and they were in no small measure responsible for the Naval team's win.

The military team had the lead first through Daley, the goal scored a few minutes before the end of the first half.

Gillard, the Cornwall's left-winger, equalised soon after the start of the resumption of play, and this goal was soon followed by another, Leggett being the scorer. Just the time, Hume added to the winners already safe lead.

The teams were:—
R.A.S.C.:—Sgt. Butters; Sgt. Jeffers and L/C Grant; Sgt. Cuthbert; Sgt. Barron and L/C Meaker; Cpl. Bowles; Sm. Daley; Sgt. Tipple, L/C Toogood and L/C Jeffers.

H.M.S. Cornwall:—Cpl. Wilson; Lt. Mill and A. B. Hallowell; Sgt. Bickard; A. B. Headman; A. B. Hallowell.

In a Mamak Tournament Hockey game played yesterday the Radio Sports Club defeated the Varsity by 7 goals to nil.

At the interval the score was 4 to nil. Three more goals being scored after the break. The scorers were: Awtar Singh (4), Chowdhury (2) and Jaijit Singh.

For the Varsity officers played well at centre half while Chowdhury and J. A. Kemp combined well on the Radio left.

The last 15 minutes of play saw the Varsity attacking but to no avail.

RUGGER

Club Beat Combined Services

The Club seniors met and defeated the Combined Services in a rugger match at Sookunpoo by fifteen points to six. The Club scoring a goal, two tries and a dropped goal, as against the Services two tries.

The run of the play was not of a high standard, the opening stages being inclined to be scrappy.

MESSRS. ROZA BROS

India supported the silver market in London yesterday, and due to the relatively small supplies the market tone was steady. Rates were slightly higher at 24 7/16 for Ready and 24 9/16 for Forward. The closing tone was steady but without any special feature. There was no change in the American price of 54 1/2.

At the opening of the market in New York yesterday Sterling was quoted at 48 7/8 at which rate it closed.

Market.

Steady during the early part of the morning but subsequently eased off owing to some demand. The tone, however, at the close was on the steady side.

Sterling.

There were some sellers after the opening at 1/9 9/16 for near delivery, buyers bidding 1/9 1/2 but offers at 1/9 9/16 were accepted for near delivery followed by transactions at the same rate for April, May and June. The market closed with sellers at 1/9 1/2 February/May and 1/9 9/16 June, buyers at 1/9 9/16 February/May and 1/9 1/2 June.

U. S. Dollars

Business was done at 43 13/16 for cash and March. The market closed with sellers at 43 1/2 February/April and 43 15/16 May, buyers at 43 13/16 February/May and probably April and 43 1/2 May.

Shanghai Dollars.

Business was done at 12 1/2 for near delivery and 12 3/4 for March. There were sellers at 12 1/2 for near, buyers at 1/8 higher.

Shanghai Market.

The market in Shanghai continued steady. Sterling at 1/5 1/2 for near and 1/4 15/16 for forward, improving later to 1/5 13/16 for near and 1/5 for forward. Dollars were on offer at 34 1/16 for near and 34 7/16 for forward and later at 34 3/16 and 34 9/16 for ready and forward respectively.

THE SHARE MARKET

Harriman's Weekly Report

9th February, 1935.

Mr. G. A. Harriman's weekly share report and market review issued at noon states:—

The market during the period under review showed no signs of recovering from its holiday mood and consequently the volume of trading was very light and rates were more or less nominal throughout with little change to be recorded. Investment counters remained practically unchanged with Star Ferries in demand at $99, Electric at $704, and Hongkong Lands at $50. Telephones (old) were dealt in at $254 while the new shares changed hands at $104. Hongkong Trams were somewhat easier with scrip offering freely at $20.20 after sales reported at $20.50. Dairy Farms attracted little attention with scrip obtainable at $24.20. Among the minor issues Cements were put through at the slightly increased rate of $2.05 while Hotels declined to $4.95, at which figure shares changed hands. China Lights came to business at $10.10/10.25 closing with sellers at the former rate. Providents (old) still met with enquiries at $125. Further interest was taken in Philippine mining shares, Antamoks having changed hands at 79/95 cts and Gold Rivers at $0.22 1/2. The starting section was very steady with Hongkong Banks transacted at $1530/40 and Unions at $495. The tone of the market at the close is quietly easy.

Business during the week has been done at the following prices:—
Hongkong Banks, $1530/40
Unions, $495
Hongkong Trams, $20.20
Lights, $10.20/10.25
Telephones (new), $10.25
Cements, $2.05
Hongkong Lands, $504
Antamoks (ex div. and ex. Rts.) 79 cts/85 cts.
Gold Rivers, 21 1/2/22 cts.

REICHSMARK QUOTATIONS

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")
(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1934. Received, February 10, 4.50 p.m.)

Berlin, Feb. 9.
Although the tone was confident and the turnover of the share-market on Saturday was small, there was no uniform tendency. Fixed interest securities also slackened during the last few days. City loans were a shade weaker while the number of gold and mortgage bonds were half a point higher.

Call Money 3 1/2 to 3 3/4, Young Loan unchanged at 102, Reichsbank down 1 to 100, Dytrusts 1/8 lower at 143 1/2, Salzgitter, Potash 155, on Friday it was unquoted, German Steel Trusts 1/2 weaker at 474, German Mineral Oils unchanged at 103 1/2, Siemenshalske advanced 1 to 112 1/2, this evidently being the sequel of the sudden meteoric rise of 5 1/2 on Friday.

Except on Friday the bourse was exceptionally quiet throughout the week both as regards the share and the fixed interest security markets. This calm was not surprising after the smart rises last week which brought both shares and fixed interest securities up to near high level record and rather tending to favour profit-taking and realisations. Despite the quietness, the prices held up well because confidence was strong following the announcement of the complete success of the conversion operation which met universal approval. Another supporting factor was the reports of the official German Institute for Business Research showing an upward trend in the general economic development and the satisfactory progress of the standard negotiations in Berlin.
